

Church of the Foothills
Welcoming Covenant

No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are welcome here.

As a community of faith that believes in and strives to live into these words, Church of the Foothills lovingly declares that we are an Open and Affirming congregation in which all people, including persons of every race, ethnic background, age, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, physical or mental ability, socio-economic background, marital status, and faith background are welcomed and embraced in the full life and work of our church.

We recognize that many people in these communities are often the target of discrimination and judgment in the name of God, and we consciously choose to renounce said discrimination and judgment by embracing justice and welcoming all people into the full life and communion of our church. Furthermore, we affirm a faith that calls us all into radical kinship with one another and celebrates each individual as a beloved child of God.

We recognize that declaring Church of the Foothills to be Open and Affirming is not the final destination but the continuation of an ongoing journey to seek justice for all of God's children and to love our neighbor as ourselves, in accordance with the teachings of Christ Jesus.
